

GOOD PRACTICE SUMMARY

Good Practice	Support for the development of capacities of the Counter Migrant-Smuggling Unit and the National Plan to Counter Migrant Smuggling in Panama.
Description	To support the newly created UATIM, IOM conducted a Train-the-Trainers workshop on Counter Migrant-Smuggling for public servants from the National Migration Service (SNM) to train state officials nationwide on this crime. Additionally, IOM provided technical and logistical support in the drafting and joint review of the draft National Plan to Counter Migrant Smuggling in Panama, facilitating discussion with institutions and organizations involved in the intervention matrix.
Objective	To develop capacities and provide technical support to the new administrative unit responsible for Counter Migrant-Smuggling.
Location	Panama
Beneficiaries	Public servants of the State, Panamanian State

IMPLEMENTATION PHASES

The implementation of this initiative was divided into strategic phases to guarantee effective execution and a lasting impact on the strengthening of the Unit for Counter Migrant-Smuggling and the development of the National Plan to Counter Migrant Smuggling in Panama. These phases are described below:

